Community Activities Update

Highway Cleanup: Spring has sprung and that means it's time to do our part for the community and spruce up our part of Route 40 for the upcoming summer. The O.D.O.T. folks have already contacted me to get a cleanup scheduled so here it is, May 14th at 9:00 AM. We will meet up in the parish parking lot and leave from there. Please come out and lend a hand.

Wives Appreciation Dinner: We have scheduled our annual wives appreciation dinner for Sunday June 12th at 1:30 PM (after Noon mass). This year it will be held at the T.A.T. Restaurant on the corner of Livingston and James. (continued next column)

We will be ordering from the menu which has a little something for everyone. This is a great opportunity to thank our wives for their support in all that we do for each other, our community and the parish. If you would like to attend please contact myself or any of the council officers.

Whether it's participating in a holiday parade, cleaning up the environment, or helping the Special Olympiads, community activities are a great way to put our Faith in action. Please contact myself or any of the Council Officers or Directors if you can lend a hand.

MAY: Two Incomes Equals Two Insurance Needs

In the days of “Ozzie and Harriet,” most families fit one description. Fathers worked full-time, while mothers remained home, raising the kids and taking care of the house. Nowadays, some families do still fall into the traditional, one-paycheck category. Yet others must rely on two incomes to make ends meet - even if one parent works part-time or from home. As much as things change, they remain the same. This maxim certainly holds true with life insurance planning. If someone earns an income to support a family, family-income protection through life insurance is of utmost importance. As your agent, I can do a needs analysis for both of you. I’ll take into consideration the amount and the sources of your income, and suggest different ways to provide sufficient life insurance coverage for you and your family. You take it for granted that you and your family should get an annual checkup from your doctor, but you’d also benefit from a financial checkup. Now’s the time for that financial checkup, because chances are your life and your financial obligations have become more complicated each year. Here’s good news for married people: If a husband and wife purchase permanent insurance policies at the same time, they can get our Spousal Waiver of Premium rider added to each policy at no cost. You have to apply for insurance on or before your 45th birthday, and you both must qualify for insurance at standard rates. The Spousal Waiver of Premium Rider is an excellent feature for both dual-income and one-income families... and everybody in between. Call me. I’ll be glad to meet with you and your spouse.

FROM THE CHAPLAIN:

We celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord every day of our lives, but in a special way we celebrate that wonderful promise of everlasting life to all of us during the 50 days between Easter and the Feast of Pentecost. On that feast day we hear from Sacred Scripture:

+The disciples were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Acts 2:1-11

+Jesus breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit." John 20:19-23

A Mother's Spirit

Early that Saturday morning, Ashley Smith was returning home to her Atlanta apartment after a quick run to the store. As she got out of her car, she felt a gun at her side. Brian Nichols, the fugitive who had killed the presiding judge, court reporter and a deputy at an Atlanta courthouse, forced Ashley into her apartment and held her bound in her bathroom.

It was the beginning of an extraordinary ordeal for the young widow, the mother of a five-year-old daughter. Displaying tremendous courage and levelheadedness, Ashley acted as her faith had taught her.

Over the next several hours she spoke to Brian Nichols as one hurting soul to another. She spoke gently but firmly. As they talked about God, family, pancakes and the massive man-hunt going on outside, Ashley the hostage became Ashley the confidant. The longer they talked, the more the fear went away.

Brian Nichols untied Ashley, saying to her, "I feel that I am already dead." Ashley urged Brian Nichols to consider that his being alive at this point in his life was a "miracle."

After Brian Nichols gave himself up peacefully, Ashley said she tried not to judge him, but to let him take from her a sense of hope. She said that she had several chances to pick up the gun, "but I did not want anybody else dead."

"I wanted his mother to be able to look at me and say thank you for making my son understand that nobody else needed to die, not even him.

+Ashley Smith possesses the unique heart and spirit of a mother: a spirit of compassion, a spirit that always rises to the possibilities for reconciliation and forgiveness, a spirit that breathes hope and peace into the most desperate and dark situations. Such is the Spirit of God that Jesus breathes into his new Church born out of His Easter Passover from death to life.

After the Rosary:

HAIL, HOLY QUEEN, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope! To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve; to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!

V. Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray. O GOD, whose only begotten Son, by His life, death, and resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life, grant, we beseech Thee, that meditating upon these mysteries of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.

After each decade say the following prayer requested by the Blessed Virgin Mary at Fatima: "O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, lead all souls to Heaven, especially those who have most need of your mercy."

As suggested by the Holy Father the Joyful mysteries are said on Monday and Saturday, the Luminous on Thursday, the Sorrowful on Tuesday and Friday, and the Glorious on Wednesday and Sunday (with this exception: Sundays of Christmas season - The Joyful; Sundays of Lent - Sorrowful)

Grand Knight's Column

Dear Brother Knights,

Spring is in the air, the flowers are blooming and yes, it is time to cut the grass again! I must say that it nice to have some warmer weather with no snow and even cutting the grass.

April was a quiet month or quiet by comparison to most. We had a couple of events noteworthy. We held our last Spaghetti dinner on April 2nd and I want to thank everyone who helped to make this happen. There were lots of Knights helping, unfortunately we just broke even. Next year we plan to do something more spring that should bring the people out. Our guest speaker this month was actually an Irish Dance troupe and provided lively entertainment for those members and wives that came.

We were fortunate enough to have four of our members taking their Fourth Degree - Steve Baker, Ron Kinietz, John Czacovic, and Joseph Sanderell on April 23-24th. Congratulate these Sir Knights next time you see them.

The Measure Up Campaign snuck in on us in April this year. We had a good turn out to work the corner and a big thank you to all that helped. Results will be covered next month.

Well April showers should bring May flowers! (seems like most of them bloomed in April???) Anyway, we have some very important activities going on this month. There are two First Eucharist celebrations for children of our parish family. The first is on April 30th and the second on May 7th. Congratulations to our Brother Knights who have children that make this important step in their lives and please keep all the kids in your prayers.

Confirmation will be May 17th at 7 PM so mark your calendars and note that the meeting that night will start after Confirmation (around 8:30). If you would like to come at 7 and play cards or visit by all means please do.

At the first meeting in May we will be electing our two delegates and two alternates to the State Convention that will be held in Columbus at the Easton Hilton. Past Grand Knights should have received a letter regarding being a delegate and a request to get back to me if they wished to be considered. Please do so prior to the May meeting on Tuesday May 3rd so that we can put your name in the hat!

I have asked Brothers Lee Brock, Todd Mislán, and Bret Baxter to put together a slate of officers for the upcoming fraternal year. If you have an interest in taking an active part in the workings of our council please let them know.

My final thoughts for this May newsletter revolve around the Month of May. As a kid it was always the month of Mary, the Rosary and May Crowning. Though times have changed and traditions have fallen by the way side I still find my self honoring Mary with the rosary (and the Knights will lead the Rosary after the 5pm Sat. Mass each week) and thanking the Lord for two major things in my life. First I am thankful for my wife who has always been there for me (especially this year as Grand Knight) over the past 26 years (as our anniversary is this month) and for her as a mother of our two wonderful children. We all have had our moms and many of us are fortunate that we have had our wives that have given us children. It for these two special women in our lives I encourage you to thank them and also to pray for them this month, the month of Mary and the Rosary.

The Ohio State Knights of Columbus 106th annual convention will be held on May 27-29, 2005 at the Hilton Hotel Easton, Columbus Ohio. On Friday evening, 7PM, all members and guests who may not be attending the Convention, are invited to enjoy an evening of fun, food and social encounters. The admission of $5.00 includes, free beer, soft drinks, and $10.00 Dollars of free play money to enjoy games of chance. At 9 PM this years charity ticket drawings will be held. Put this event on your calendars and bring your spouse and friends and enjoy a fun evening. Parking is also available across the street from the hotel in the mall parking garage.

Take care, and God Bless,
Respectfully in Christ,
Shawn Ansbro, Grand Knight
