Grand Knight's Column

January 2011

Worthy Brother Knights:

The holiday season is behind us and I hope it was enjoyable for you and your family. As members of the Knights of Columbus, our focus is on our church, family and community. It is our family and St. Pius community that has been and continues to be places where we know we will always be welcome. Please be sure to continue spending time with your family during 2011.

We had two very successful events during December. The Breakfast with Santa continues to be well attended. My thanks to anyone who helped put up decorations or worked the event. Special thanks to Phil Siedlecki for setting the scene again this year, and Shawn Ansbro and his crew for keeping the pancakes coming. Jerry Lowery took over 100 pictures of children with Santa as the rest of us tried to keep people fed with pancakes.

My thanks to Martha Terry, Peg Brock, Sue Valentine, Dee Ansbro and Jayne Siedlecki each of whom took time to cook and slice a turkey for our annual Holiday dinner. The food was delicious, and when you add in the fellowship, it was a very nice evening. If you were not there, you missed seeing Steve McClellan, who easily was the best dressed person there. The combination of red shirt and socks with a tie that had pictures of poinsettias was a site to behold.

At our Holiday dinner on December 4th. I had the privilege of recognizing some of our brother Knights and their families for the work they did over the past six months. If you see any of the following members or their families, please thank them again for their service to our council.

I appreciate the example each of you set as a reminder to our church and our community what it means to be a Knight of Columbus. Each month I write this column, I am reminded of all the things we do for our church and community and I thank you for the example each of you set and the work each of you do.

December, 2010

The women's meeting was cancelled in December due to the cold and snowy weather. As President, I felt that it was unsafe for the members.

Our next meeting is Monday, January 10th, 2011 in the PAC Room at 7 pm. The officers will provide the snacks and beverages. In the New Year, the ladies will be busy planning their annual card party which is April 26th. Please consider volunteering to be a committee chairman or being on a committee. The Women's Club needs everyone's support to have a successful party. I hope that everyone has a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

See you at the January meeting.
