Grand Knight's Column

March 2011

Worthy Brother Knights:

Lent is an opportunity to put our focus on our faith. We can examine ourselves and our lives and decide how we want to change. We can use this time to become a better person and a better catholic. Please take time to consider what you will do during Lent to make your life more meaningful.

Charity is one of the founding principles in our order. By now you should have received a mailing containing Basketball Sweepstakes tickets. Proceeds from this raffle will be used for the homeless and food banks in the diocese. Simply by buying a ticket, you will help those that are not as fortunate as we are. This is our chance to show we take the principle of charity seriously. Deputy Grand Knight Horace Gilmore will provide details of our Charity Campaign later in the newsletter.

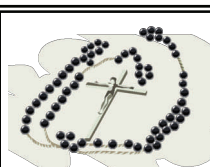

During Lent, we will be having fish fries. If you can help, please give Brother Knight Shawn Ansbro a call. If you cannot help, please plan on eating. The food is always good, and the fellowship even better.

I would like to say thank you to all the members of our council who attended the Clergy Appreciation Dinner at the Villa-Milano. This dinner is sponsored by the K of C Columbus Diocese Chapter and is an opportunity for us to say thanks for everything our clergy do for us. Our support of seminarians through our Pennies for Heaven collections is another way we show our appreciation. Let us pray that more young people answer God's call.

A Lenten Reflection

Deputy Grand Knight's Column

Dear Brother Knights:

2011 Ohio State Charity Campaign

It is time to kick off the Ohio State Council's 2011 Super Cash Bonanza campaign for charity. This campaign will mean a "bonanza" of financial support for the charities that our council supports as well those of our Ohio Charity Foundation.

Each of you will soon receive tickets and a letter describing this campaign. By selling or purchasing these tickets, you will have an opportunity to assist your council in a very tangible way. The more we sell, the more our council earns for its charity programs.

The first turn-in is April 5th from 7-9 pm and the second turn-in is May 10th from 7-9 pm.

Measure Up Campaign

The "flagship" charity of the Knights of Columbus has long been our support for our citizens with developmental disabilities. Our primary fundraiser for assisting those with developmental disabilities, is our annual Measure Up Campaign.

Council 5253 will conduct its 2011 Measure Up Campaign by soliciting from the general public in our community. In order to make this campaign successful, the council needs your help. Please consider volunteering a few hours on April 30th for this worthwhile program. To volunteer, you may contact me at 614-868-8482.

Fraternally Yours,

S.K. Horace Gilmore, Deputy Grand Knight
