We Can't Do It Without YOU!

Grand Knight's Column

May 2011

Worthy Brother Knights:

Oscar Wilde said, "Who, being loved, is poor?" Think about the things we did in April that show how true that quote really is.

On April 3rd, we had our annual anniversary mass at the 8:30 mass with breakfast afterward. Those of you unable to attend missed good food and fellowship. Thanks to Shawn and Dee Ansbro and Jerry Lowery II for preparing the food we enjoyed.

At our Wive's Appreciation Dinner, we had an opportunity to show our appreciation to our wives for all the love and support they have given us this past year. My thanks to Shawn Ansbro, Jerry Lowery II and Doug Brock for all of their help getting the food ready. While the food was great, it was even more enjoyable to serve our wives. The evening concluded with a song as a reminder to our wives that they will always be unforgettable.

The State Convention will be held at the Hilton Columbus at Easton in Columbus on the Memorial Day weekend of May 27-29. Our council delegates, elected at the last meeting, were Stephen Dodaro and Lee Brock. Shawn Ansbro and Steve McClellan were elected as alternates.

During the month of May, we set aside time for special devotions to Mary and to our mothers. Each Saturday during May, we will honor Mary by praying the rosary. If you attend mass on Saturday at 5pm, please stay and help us honor Mary. Mother's day is a time for us to thank both our mother and the mother of our children. In a person's life, the place that a mother holds can never ever be taken over by anyone else. She is always there to love you, care for you and even make sacrifices for you. In fact, there is hardly any other person in this world who would be willing to do all those things for you that a mother does.

Fraternally Yours,

S.K. Stephen J. Dodaro, Grand Knight

STATE CONVENTION MOVES TO COLUMBUS

The 112th Ohio State Convention will be held at the Hilton Columbus at Easton in Columbus on the Memorial Day weekend of May 27-29, with expected attendance of more than 900 delegates, members, and guests of the Order converging on the headquarters hotel, the Hilton Columbus at Easton Center. Every council in good standing in Ohio may send two delegates to the convention, and State Deputy Paul J. Upman encourages them to do so. A highlight of this year's State Convention will be the election of a new State Deputy and new State Warden.

Council 5253 Welcomes New Members

Council 5253 would like to welcome Louis Borth and his wife Kelly. Louis took his first degree on April 12th. We would also like to welcome back Kerry Hodakievic who has rejoined our council. We look forward to their participation in our activities.

Dear Brother Knights:

May 2011

I encourage you to keep our council strong by supporting as many events as possible. Please use this newsletter as a reminder when scheduling events on your calendars. Perhaps you can set aside time to attend a meeting or assist at an upcoming event.
